Daily Eagic M. M. MURDOCK, Editor.

A CHARACTER THAT ABIDES.

William McKlaley fall in any attempt to accomplish a classification of his life as a man and his career as an ofa gentle, pure equanimity. Singularly when the culculat ket was too cumbersome and poison-so often used by touches upon his official career and essays to discover the Oriental assussing was rarely resorted to in the Occident chief characteristic there he concludes with the same find-whatever we may attribute all the limstriousness of this lities by almost entirely discarding other weapons and adman, all the greatness of his achievements-whatever of opting it as their distinctive implement. successes were largely due to his moral qualities.

he was easer to close it.

The cologists cannot separate under two heads the life be confiscated for the public good. of McKinley as a man, and his career as an official. They are intertwined. His character which made him a noble figure, made him a noble president.

PECULAR THINGS ABOUT ROOSEVELT.

about President Roosevell.

few thousand inhabitants.

of the wealthiest Americans of his day. His fortune has been placed as high as $50,000, which was a great sum then. The Massachusetts want. But the rule has been poverty or, at least, very suscess, in "corn against want. But the rule has been poverty or, at least, very suscess, in "corn against want. But the rule has been poverty or, at least, very suscess, in "corn against want. But the rule has been poverty or, at least, very suscess, in "corn against the parameter was say. In the insane asylom. Society item in the Atchison Globe: "Neither," responded Julia, drawing his cheek, "at the Paris Exposition. The great mass of continuous was the Paris Exposition. The great mass of continuous was the Paris Exposition. The great mass of continuous wast. The paris Exposition of the property of the pound solder gave against the paris for paris for David Multiplemant of the paris for paris was say. In the insane asylom. Society item in the Atchison Globe: "Neither," responded Julia, drawing high the paris for the pound solder gave against the pound s has been to a competence. This ceaseless activity and actual demonstrations, as in Belgium. industry are not the result of any spar of necessity, and for | If in addition to practically showing the merits of corn that reason at all the more creditable.

part among recent Presidents though there are early pare negotiation of reciprocity treaties. allels. He is notable fond of atheletic sports, and his physical strength and nettray have clied much attention. Most of the Presidents have been robust and well developed men, Schley has heard about, and will probably stick, and their love of sports which showed it. Both y upe fathous as young their for their bodily prowest, and blent and then president. Fillmore, Arthur and Van Bu-It is quite probable that either could have thrown President | ren were the others. Receivedt in a wrestling match or beaten film in running President and the latest would have made a fine match in come.

President Rocsevelt is very fond of hunding like Thomas. The way the thirteen inch shells are being fired into Jefferson. Asthur was a devoted angler, and Cleveland W. R. Hearst and his sensational papers just now is a carenjoyed both shooting and fishing. Benjamin Harrison oc. Uch. casionally took a day's sport with does and gun. But we casionally took a day's sport with done and gam. But we have had no such almost as Theodore Romewell in the White House, in the memoir of the present generation.

Altogether the new President is quite a unique personal fly. He has usuny points of difference from all of his predictions have an altogether the new President of difference from all of his predictions have a controlled in the final uniform of the North and South.

One of the historical though of McKinley's life will stand us the final uniform of the North and South.

One of the historical though of McKinley's life will stand us the final uniform of the North and South.

The men who are analyzing the character of McKinley and the spider and great.

The near who are analyzing the character of McKinley and the spider and great.

The near who are analyzing the character of McKinley and the spider and great.

The near who are analyzing the character of McKinley and the spider and great.

The near who are analyzing the character of McKinley and the spider and great.

The near who are analyzing the same vertices. The many all the spider and great.

The near who are an all the same carried from the final which a man may not prom by system which a man may not be in the less the same of the new old in scale excess it believes the same of the new old in scale excess it believes the same of the new old in scale excess it believes the same of the new old in scale excess it believes the same of the new old in scale excess it believes the same of the new old in scale excess it believes the new old in scale excess it believes the new old in scale excess gence, and let training for the great office he has been called upon to fill.

THE DEATH DEALING PISTOL.

The fact that assarshations of public mon have been more frequent during the past fifty years than at any other time since the Bark Ages is a strange paradex; for during line mineteenth century, and especially its latter half, a higher estimation has been jut upon human life than ever before. The unefforation of criminal codes, reducing the tary of the transury. frequency of the death penalty, and the founding of great suisbers of behavelets institutions to prolong the life and increase the confers of even the lowllest members of the community comblish this beyond card. The frequency of regicide is clearly a most exceptional feature of our made public

The growth of secret societies with revolutionary tendencies, the stread of the doctrine of anarchy and the other reasons which have been so generally suggested during the past week in explanation of the deplorable frequency of attacks upon the heads of government are not sufficient to account for it. There have always been wretches willing to commit murder, and they have banded together in secre-It is notable and interesting that all the calogists of associations as frequently in past times as in our own. The criminal impulse has not changed; but there has been an extraordinary change in the instruments which it employs. All are agreed that as a man his characteristic was throughout Europe were the aword and dagger. The mus-To use the cold steel with fatal effect required time to able degree of strength and skill. When the revolver was Bushop Andrews says it best: "It seems to me that to invented assassins manifested their appreciation of its qual-

Inventive ingenuity and manufacturing skill applied to we may attribute to his intellectual character and this arm have progressively cheapened its cost, lessened its whatever of it we may attribute to the patient and size and increased its effectiveness until the almost toythe thorough study which he gave to the various questions like revolver of the present day, cheap, easily hidden and thrust upon him for attention, for all his successes as a pol. deadly in execution, has become an ideal instrument of as a statesman, as a man of this great country, crime-a weapon which shauld bear the inscription "murder made casy."

Pistols and revolvers of the diminitive, self-acting type They drew to him the hearts of men everywhere and par- should be suppressed. There is no legitimate function of firearms which could not be as well or better performed by we The fact is that this moral quality dominated in McKin- a larger weapon difficult or concealment. Large revolvers ley until all his notable official acts partook of it. His are supplied to the army, navy and police force, and the belief in the tariff was based on the conviction that only of similar size. The minute mechanism which can be through a protective tariff could employment be given to concealed by the bent finger of one hand is a curse. The the American individual at good wages with permanency difficulties in the way of abolishing this tool of murder are and growth. His adherence to the doctrine amounted to not very great. At the next session of Congress a prohia concern for his fellow men. His battle against the dec- bitory tax should be imposed upon the manufacture of all laration of war with Spain cross from a horror of the evils fire arms below a certain standard of length and weight, and an equal duty hild upon their importation, suggests the He was well aware that war was certain to add philadelphia Record. Such action is clearly within the to his fame, that the triumph of this nation over Spain was taxing power of the federal government. Then should fola foregone conclusion, but he was against the sacrifice of low uniform legislation among the states making it a misa single life. He abhorred it. The war came in spite of demeaner to bell, expose for sale or have in possession fre his efforts. But at the first sign of surrender from Spain, already in existence sould be collected by proper officers and broken up. Those who have money invested in such Of all his administration his chief gratification was the merchandese should be fairly remunerated, and there would widespread prosperity of the country. To him prosperity be no popular protest against drawing this remuneration signified happiness, happiness to the individual American. from the federal treasury masmuch as the purpose in view We all ought to know that this gratification was greater would be national security. In the bureau of internal revenue, with but slight modification, the government alto him than any pride in accomplishing a purpose and ready possesses all the official machinery necessary to put into effect such legislation to those whose property might a club in Baltimore of which he was a member, for some a club in Baltimore of which he was a member, for some very unfelling remarks about the attempted assassination of Fresident McKinley. Those remarks, he says, were not intended for publication, but, having been published, he wishes it to be understood that they express his sentiments. The sentiments of his fellow club members are that they do not want his company any lower and public. The Cleveland Leader points out several peculiarities not intended for publication, but, having been published, It is well understood that President Roosevelt is the ments. The sentiments of his fellow cinb members are youngest man ever sworn into office as Chief Executive of that they do not want his company any longer, and public larks. are less generally known. He is unique among American rules and regulations concerning membership, resignation and expulsion, and it is presumed that these rules the unique among American rules and regulations concerning membership, resignation and expulsion, and it is presumed that these rules the unique among American rules and regulations concerning membership, resignation and expulsion, and it is presumed that these rules have been followed in Wellington's case. If not, he has the tester, "he says here that he has entire to any solution and expulsion are the president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than a president terms his life in a place of more than the United States. There are other petuliar facts which sentiment concurs with them. Every club has its own No other President beam his life in a place of more than a not to appeal to any further verdict in his case. Quite different is the suggestion made by ex-Senator Chandler's The new President is the first whose face is familiar to paper, the Concord (N. H.) Monitor, that Mr. Wellington his countrymen as wearing eyeglasses or spectacles. His be expelled from the senate of the United States for the she portraits are not known in any other way.

President Reconstitution says that each house of the same affense. The constitution says that each house of the same affense. The constitution says that each house of the same affense are a fellow, it would not be confirmed as widowers after they assumed the duties of their great office. John Tyler chose his second wife white he athough disorderly behavior is mentioned in connection.

The ones as anxious to see the same of the agrent office. John Tyler chose his second wife while be lived in the White House. Millard Fillmore and Benjawith in the white of the second time after retiring from office. East lost the wife of his youth after becoming from office. East lost the wife of his youth after becoming the president. Many Presidents have served their country in arms; but the members must concur.

EXPORTING OUR CORN.

In view of the fact that corn is our greatest crop, it is interesting to learn from a report from Consul Winslow, statuous at Lieu. Belgiam the fact that country has increased 400 per cent in the past from the great majority after both. He has the second time that the consumption of corn is outless of the wealthest who was not born less college e education but only buff a dozon have been graduated from institutions famous of the early Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly Presidents who was not been poor. Some of the carly President who was not been poor. Some of the carly President who was not been poor. Some of the carly President who was not been poor. Some of the carly President who was not been poor. Some of the carly President who was no as food our government should secure its entrance into President Mossavelt stands alone, there is reason to European countries free of duty our shipments would it. in Fring the bend of the American republic by vir-idoubtless greatly increase. Fortunately, the way is open nomination given him much against his will. He in this direction by reason of the fact that elimatic condiwas fairly drafted for the office which made him President, tions prevent the ripening of corn in Northern Europe, and In another respect Theodore Roosevelt has no counter honce make it a favorable item for consideration in the Rear Admiral Ramsey will succeed Howison on the Bayne. Schley court. Rammay hasn't expressed an opinion that

Roosevelt is the Fourth New Yorker to be first vice pres-and fumping. They were much larger men. The first projection and help but that from her own heart can

A good many Ambricans have yet to learn how to act remainly in an immedia eround

The best enlogy yet pronouncedd on William McKinley is that by Hishop Andrews. It Senator Wellington wants to save himself a humilating econe he will resign.

Wall street expects that Gage will be retained as secre President Mckinley believed it was God's way. Ho

The steel strike is astried. The terms have not been Hoos well in retaining the cabinet states off well.

McKinley's old melghious loved him best of all.

Among the four hundred American Loudtalker, a Klowa Indian, has bre-eachers who went to Manila on the ransport Thomas were two Chicago suit.

Oung women, sisters and teachess of the Perry Enterprise objects because and women, sisters and teachers of the Perry Enterprise objects because making passed the high-grade extraction demanded by Professor Atkination demanded by Professo story engraves on the hearts of two ment needs no embellishment. The The Choctaw towns will now all point on soldier had served his country and out out out in hailfally that Granite is on the rewarded with a hospital steward in Manila. The two young women a his consists. He was engaged in a to both but he could only marry it was a toss up—heads to win—Georgia won. There was so little greene in their sie and appearance for the first value of the first class. are life, to which they had been been and bred. Their soldler coustn, who had been reared in their family, was the idea of their hearts. That he could only marry one made the tragedy of their lives, but if indeed he was to marry Georgia, which was not absolutely settled in their love-deluded minds why, then, Julia would still be a sharer of their home and haudiness; either one

m, the scapegrace, the ne'er-do-well, who had kept them all on the anxious bench until he callsted, when Uncle Sam took him by the scruff of the nack, shook him up, and gave him such a tiste of army discipline that the young man pull-ed blinself together and made a very fair soldier, with occasional doses of inpect that in a spirit of positive Tom had written to his cousins suggesting that they come to Mandia at the expense of the government, and, incidentally, that he wasted a wife to keep him I orden; addressing the letter to Georgia. It was a memorable voyage for those two, who had never in their Hvess before seen the world outside of the state of illinois. They were surrounded by a remarkable company of teachers, who had been chosen from the many normal universities of the country, all of whom were strangers to them and to each other were strangers to them and to each other before meeting on the transport at San Francisco. Yet it is a matter of history that thirty couples became ac-quainted, engaged and stopped at Hono-lulu to be married within a period of ten days. The diversion of these hurried w. N. Dick, of Perry, has sued the outlined, engaged and stopped at Honoliniu to be married within a period of ten days. The diversion of these hurried courtabiles relieved the tredium of the voyage for the little sisters.

It was after one of those riotous re-pers that in a spirit of penitence Tom

When the transport was anchored off the mouth of the Parig river awaiting the visit of the Aracheon sentium.

Senator Wellington of Maryland has been expelled from letter open before them reading direction in Baltimore of which he was a member, for some

'He won't go on larks any more," said cture taken and send it home. I hope to like Americanos."
I wonder if Tom is as anxious to see

"Dend?" Both girls spoke as if one voice, and gasped for breath.

No. Married! To a native Filipino girl, who has taken him home to her people. I'm awful gird you don't mind it, and since I was Tom's friend I hope you will let me be yours, and he of some service to you in his absence."

It was manfully spoken, and the two little, lonely, crushed women followed him mechanically into the new strange world of the Philippines, from which the enchantment of romance, beauty and love had dropped forever. Leaving an arid.

John Haughey, who is managing Weington with the ping threatened by mobility when it because he casts aspersions on the character of William Mc-Kinley.

The El Dorado Republican has been castraling for months at the head of its column this: "For president in P.S. The other Romsetch."

Prof. For President in P.S. The other Romsetch. Both girls spoke as if one enchantment of romance, heatity and love had dropped forever, leaving an arid desert of duty-because of Tom-M. L. Rayne.

Effects of Exercise.

Not only are the muscles themselves benefited by exercise, but by their action many other tissues and organs become viscorcusty in order to carry more blood to the tissues. More exygen is taken in by the lungs, and more heat is developed; head the skin, kidners and lings have to do more work to get rid of the waste products. A daily exercise of ten minutes will do much to developed; harrow cheets, in others the find of the waste products. A daily exercise of ten minutes will do much to developed; harrow cheets, in others the tendency to curvature of the spine and found shoutness, so common with boys and girls, and to give muscular streight to all parts of the body.

There is no period in scitty life in which a man may but promi to system.

The Coming Reform. Gainteet to his colored coardinate. The man of the estab-tishment to his colored coardinate. The the president's foder door talk politics, yet don't load, and you don't don't. What are you? A "Ashingtonian" Tented Galitici "A Booker Nautical Information. Captain, select the landlubber, from what direction do you get a spanking brecom." Species the graft out from extern, species, as he pared the grantestant.

but their reasons for going to the new their selections.

But their reasons for going to the new their selections are parietle, as I happened to now. This is one of the tragedles of The Hologyt Chief arrangement that it is mourning.

The Hobart Chief announces that it is the only daily paper published in western Onlinems.

Most of the mining companies of the Wichits mountains are seiling stock to get money to operate with.

Some of the politicians think that the succession of Rossevelt means a United States marshal contest in Okiahoma. An average of twelve a day do not ap-pear to select claims at such of the land offices at this stage of the proceedings. An occasional case of spinal meningitis is reported from Oklahoma. The disease has had a terrible run in the territory.

A lot of the gold quartz shown from the Wichita mountains does not contain gold

The best indications seen so far are cop-Normal school, will feel like going out and discovering about a dozen new oil gestion; "The red flag of anarchy must go where went the black flag of the pi-

Which man will win, the fellow who took an upland farm near a city or the fellow who took a good beatom farm, miles and miles away from a tower? The people of Amadarko are not brag-sing any about sold, either or copper re-sources, but they want it understood that they have the finest soft water in Okla-ous openings.

W. N. Dick, of Perry, has sued the

with a capital stock of $50,000,

Dyka Ballinger, the new county clerk of Cadho county. Oklahoma, recently cold his homestead there—a raw piece of prairie-for $50 cash. Land equally as good across the line in Kansus car be bought for much less money. The fact that land is located in Oklahoma gives it additional value.

Sunday the Chortaw reached Aiva. The Pioneer says of its arrival: 'The con-struction gang of the Chortaw railroad that was stopped at the canyon a quar-ter of a mile east of the city limits. Sat-urday, on account of the bridge being unfinished, got across yesterday noon and hald the track to the street leading to the Santa Fe depot. It was an interest-ing sight, and nearly everybody in town

John Haughey, who is managing Wei-

Mark Harms over told for Bristow this, "My influence with the president to not different from any mark. When I ask him for numething I am obliged to

The Limitaling Mound bells of a Kan-ian miss who had never been kined. Her young office was expected for a visit at the farm house, and which a handsome younge from alreaded at the gains the plunger doubther of the family valled him while Fred and kined, him, the land him inchars and ting share wined him son. Then the old man cashe in The mun who lies his wife this dut his dourned by the condition of the con

STORE CLOSED UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK TODAY...

> In honor of the Nation's dead, we will not be open for business until one o'clock today.

Tomorrow and Saturday Autumn Opening

You Are Invited ...

BLACK CAT PRIZES...

Will be awarded Saturday. See the display of funny black cats in our windows.

Of Fine Millinery

Ney, Billy ! tence is out! Nottin' like a good Booster!

5 ct. Cigar Is raising Cain in the cigar market. Everybody likes it. All dealers

> What a cigar maker smokes In every eight factory all high-grade workmen are permitted certain numbers of "smokers" for their own use, daily. They roll up a selected part of the stock into a big, loose, free-drawing, > awest smoke, minus the fluish which helps to cell eigers. Berriman Bros. believed the public would enjoy such a sigar. Hence Berriman's Factory Smokers 10 cents straight and in bundles of 5 for 50 cents.

Made from the regular 2 for 25 cents and 5 for 50 cents stock. Big, loose, free, cool and aweet, eigar is impossible. Ask at dealers. Parkhurst-Davis Mercantile Co., Alton-Dawson Mercantile Co.,

Topeka, Kan. Ranney-Alton Mercantile Co., Arkansas City, Kan. P. A. Vance Grocery Co., South McAlester, I. T.

Oklahoma City, Okla. Carter Battle Grocory Co., Fort Worth, Texas. Springfield Gracery Co.,

Is the Solder Off Your Tea Kettle?

Try Our SEAMLESS STEEL KETTLE

South Window

J. E. Caldwell 130 NORTH MAIN.

THE MORE YOU SAY THE LESS PEOPLE REMEMBER." ONE WORD WITH YOU

SAPOLIO

DR. A. L. JOHNSON, Specialist

Hovey Medical Association Rooms 50, 50, 52 Winne Building, Wichita, Kansas.

Treats All Chronic Cases, Male or Female

Cancer and Tumor Cured Ally an Assentiately Paintens Process. No State of Cures Guaranteed. Rupture Cured Without the case of the kinds, or determine from hostness. Rupture Cured Trusses triad by an expert and putranteed to hold, or no naz.